The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a GitHub repository page. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://github.com/B00100077/B00100077.github.io>. The repository page has a navigation bar with links to Code, Issues, Pull requests, Projects, Wiki, Insights, and Settings. Below the navigation bar, there is a section for repository statistics: 1 commit, 1 branch, 0 releases, and 1 contributor. A bar at the top indicates the current branch is 'master'. Below this, there are buttons for 'Create new file', 'Upload files', 'Find file', and 'Clone or download'. The main content area shows a list of files and folders, each with a 'First site' link and a timestamp of '21 minutes ago'. The files listed are: Screenshots, botFromLecture, css, image, myimage, about.html, contact.html, index.html, past.html, and shop.html. At the bottom of the repository page, there is a prompt to 'Add a README'.
